Foreword

Approximately 5,200 men and women have served as Members of the House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada (1792-1841), as Members from Canada West in the Legislative Assembly of the united Province of Canada (1841-1867), and as Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario (1867-1991). In the past, identification or verification of a particular Member, Legislature or Electoral District has proved to be a tedious and time-consuming task for those researching Ontario's political history because the information is scattered in a great many sources.

It was to facilitate such research that Legislators and Legislatures of Ontario covering the years from 1792 to 1984 was published in three volumes by the Ontario Legislative Library in 1984 as its contribution to the Bicentennial of Ontario celebrated that year.

This volume covers the years from 1984 to 1991 and provides a cumulative index to all four volumes of Legislators and Legislatures of Ontario. It is one of several publications issued by the Legislative Library to mark the 200th anniversary of the first session of the first Parliament of Upper Canada which took place at Newark (now Niagara-on-the-Lake) 17 September 1792.

The first three volumes of this reference work were compiled and edited by Debra Forman, then a reference librarian on the staff of the Legislative Library. The Library is fortunate to have been able to commission Ms Forman, now International Business and Trade Law Librarian at the Faculty of Law of the University of Toronto, to compile and edit Volume 4. The information she collected for this reference work is the result of much intensive and painstaking research. This work will fill a long-felt need in the reference collections of politicians, political scientists, historians, teachers, librarians and others who have occasion to research the legislative history of Ontario.

Introduction

Volume 4 of Legislators and Legislatures of Ontario is a continuation of Ontario's legislative history for the years 1984 through 1991. Volume 3 ended with the Third Session of the 32nd Legislature. The Fourth Session of the 32nd Legislature leads off this present volume and is joined by the 33rd, 34th and First Session of the 35th Legislatures.

Generally speaking, the format of the preceding three volumes has been carried over into Volume 4, with some additions and, it is hoped, some improvements. Firstly, the main body of text is once again divided into two lists, the Alphabetical List of Members and the Alphabetical List of Constituencies. Both lists provide the name, constituency, and party of each MPP. In Volume 4, in an attempt to avoid duplication, legislative data has been restricted to the Members list and electoral district information has been included in the Constituency list; that is, the Members list provides legislative data while the Constituency list includes changes in the Representation Act. The only data that is replicated in both lists relates to Party leaders, Speakers, resignations and deaths.

The Alphabetical Index of Members 1792 - 1984 has been extended to 1991 as was the Alphabetical Index of Electoral Districts. This was done to provide researchers with a complete listing of MPPs for all four volumes. All other lists cover the years 1984-1991.

Preceding each Legislature is a page of brief facts focusing on that Legislature's key events.

A list of death notices for former MPPs who died during the years 1984 through 1991 has also been included. When death dates were unavailable, a reference to the Journals of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is provided.

I would like to thank the staff of the Ontario Legislative Library for their support and kind assistance in this project. I am also grateful to Maureen Henry, Marlene MacKinnon, Rick McLaughlin, Dasha Pohoral and Vicki Whitmell for their generous technical support. Lastly, I would like to thank my family for their love and patience. They endured.
